McKoin Loses His Fight For Release

Three Baltimore Judges Deny

FORMAL CHARGES OF MURDER ARE MADE

Governor and Investigators Meet In New Orleans To Plan
Case

(Associated Press)
BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 28.—Dr.
B. M. McKoin, former mayor of Mer Rouge today lost his fight for immediate release on habeas corpus proceedings. He was remanded "without prejudice" to give the Louisiana authorities time to present their case.

Dr. McKoin was arrested here Tuesday at the request of Governor Parker, of Louisiana, who accused him of murder in connection with the Morehouse kidnapping last August.

Three judges of the Baltimore supreme bench, sitting in city court, denied Dr. McKoin the right of bail.

A dispatch from Attorney General Coco, of Louisiana, stated that Dr.
McKoin formally had been charged with the murder of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards. The dispatch added that a deputy sheriff was on his way to Baltimore with the necessary papers in the case.

GOVERNOR CONFERS

(Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 28.—Governor Parker reached here this morning to take part in the conference, which he will hold today with his associates and federal investigators, to outline plans for the open hearing at Bastrop and to discuss other phases of the Morehouse kidnapping investigations.

The Governor declined to be interviewed, maintaining his silence to newspaper men, inaugurated when the investigations began.

INTEREST SHIFTS

(Associated Press)
BASTROP, La., Dec. 28.—Chief interest in the Morehouse kidnapping case was shifted today to New Orleans where Governor John M. Parker held a conference with Attorney General Coco.

A warrant for the arrest of Dr. B.
M. McKoin, who is held in Baltimore, at the request of Governor Parker, was issued here yesterday on instructions from Attorney General Coco.
The issuance of the warrant, it was believed by state officials here, would make it unnecessary for the state to show its hand by producing whatever evidence it may have against the doctor in its attempt to have him brought to Louisiana.

The masked mob, which kidnapped Daniels and Richards, was composed of about 75 men, according to one of the investigators, who has been following the case closely for several months.

The identity of practically every member of the mob, it was said, is known to the authorities and it was expected that many more arrests, in addition to those already made, will follow as the investigation proceeds.

PLAN DORMITORY.

(Montgomery Bureau
Albany-Decatur Daily.)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 28.—
Carrying out his determination to do everything possible during his administration for the protection of the unfortunate wards of the state, Governor Kilby has permitted the starting of construction work on another dormitory on the Bryce Hospitals for the Insane at Tuscaloosa and before the end of his term January 15 will issue an order releasing a contingent appropriation of $150,000.

PRETTY RICHMOND WOMAN
SHOT DEAD IN STREET

Mrs. Thelma Richardson

The South is greatly stirred over the mysterious murder of Mrs. Thelma Richardson, a pretty 24-year-old Richmond (Virginia) divorcee, who was shot to death on the streets by Thomas Pollard, in front of his home.
She had gone there in an automobile, accompanied by J. Mosby West, who is held as an accomplice. According to witnesses, she was shot while struggling with Pollard. No reason for the shooting has been divulged.

HARTSELLE PEOPLE
PLAN OWN COACH ON INAUGURAL JOURNEY

HARTSELLE, Ala., Dec. 29.—Unless plans now laid fail to carry, there will go from here a large Brandon delegation to the inaugural ceremonies at Montgomery on January 15. It is the plan to charter a coach, and have made a large streamer which will be attached to the side of the coach bearing the following wording: "PLAIN OLD BILL BRANDON, THE PEOPLE'S GOVERNOR."

The movement which was only brought forward during the last few days already has proved a very popular one, and more than 60 of his friends here have signified their intention of making the trip.

It is the intention to leave here on Sunday, January 14, arriving at Montgomery Sunday evening about 9 o'clock. Governor elect Brandon has always been exceedingly strong here, and at the recent election polled practically the entire strength of the town votes.

The delegation will be headed by A.
E. Jackson, president of the First National bank, who managed the governor-elect's campaign here.

Lausanne Parley
Makes No Progress

(Associated Press.)
LAUSANNE, Dec. 28.—The meeting of the commission of capitula-tions of the near East Conference failed to make progress at today's session.

Some of the allied delegations, on leaving the hall, said the conference had reached a deadlock, pending the arrival of the new Turkish instructions from Ankara.

XMAS TREE TONIGHT

ber of presents have already arrived derstood, an entertaining program will precede the distribution of the

'NOT ADVISABLE' IS PRESIDENTIAL VIEW OF BORAH PLAN FOR WORLD CONFERENCE

Harding's Letter To Senator Lodge Presents the Executive's Attitude

AMERICA ALREADY IS SEEKING WAY TO AID

Details of Negotiations Now Being Considered Are Not Revealed

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—President Harding informed the senate today that action on Senator Borah's plan for an economic and disarmament conference was not advisable, in view of what the executive branch of the government already is doing "to be helpful."

Just what the steps already taken or in contemplation by the administration may be, however, the President did not reveal.

"If congress really wants to help," he added, "it might well free the hands of the debt funding commission, which, under the act creating it, cannot alter the interest terms, or date payment of the war debts."

The reparations question, Mr.
Harding said, was at the heart of the European economic situation, but he added that the United States could not dictate the terms of reparations settlement and that it would be futile to call a reparations conference until it had been ascertained before hand that a basis of agreement could be reached.

The views of the President were set forth in a letter to Chairman Lodge, of the foreign relations committee.

Senator Lodge later told the senate that he could "not state explicitly" the nature of the administration's negotiations for a conference, but was authorized to say they did not include cancellation of the allied debt. He said President Harding told him the administration was opposed to cancellation, but inclined to favor longer amortizations and interest payments.

Post Office Opens
On 'Pay Day' Nights

Announcement was made this morning by Postmaster L. E. Huey that the Albany post office will be open each Louisville and Nashville pay day into the night "long enough to accommodate all classes of the service." Mr. Huey also announced that the Albany office would have a holiday on New Years Day.

CHECKS MAILED OUT.

(Montgomery Bureau

George W. Ellis, state treasurer, today began the task of mailing checks to pay interest on the state's bonded indebtedness which will be due on January 1. The total interest which the state pays every six months is $169,860. This covers interest on registered bonds only as owners of the coupon bonds clip their coupons and forward them to the state treasury for payment.

CLASS TO MEET

The adult department of the Central Methodist Sunday school will have a social at the Y. M. C. A. building Friday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock according to Morris Ford, chairman of the committee on arrangements. A full program has not been arranged yet but interesting exercises are expected and refreshments will be served. Members of the adult department and their friends are expected to be present.

HEALTH STATISTICS
TO REVEAL A HEAVY
DECREASE IN DEATH
RATE IN THE COUNTY

Report of County Department Now Being Prepared By Dr. Austin

BIRTHS GREATLY EXCEED DEATH DURING YEAR

Progress of Campaign Against Disease Will Be Told To Public

In a few days the complete report of health conditions on Morgan county, as kept by the County Health unit at its offices, will be issued and made available to the general public. The statistical report when finished will reveal some interesting features in the progress of the fight being made against death in Morgan county.

The money value of a life, is often put at $1700.00—although there is no way to put an accurate estimate on the value of a human life. Eleven times 1700 makes a saving of $18,- 700.00 on a single disease, when it is considered eleven fewer persons died in the past few years from that disease alone.

As interesting as any will be the "vital statistics" reports available at the office of Dr. Austin, county health officer, show 950 births during the year of 1921; while up to the end of November alone in the year 1922, 952 births have been recorded.
Dr. Austin said that when the December report was completed, he was sure there would be an addition of at least 75 births, making the birth rate in the county this year well over the 1000 limit.

While these were never before so many births in one year in Morgan county, the death rate has been steadily declining. Reports for the years 1915, 1917, 1918 and 1921, as taken at random at the health office this morning prove this conclusively.
The record shows deaths from pella-gra, 1915, 11; 1917, 10; 1918, 12; 1921, 3. Tuberculosis, 1915, 59; 1917, 63; 1918, 68; 1921, 37. Typhoid fever, 1915, 7; 1917, 10; 1918, 6; 1921, 2.

The completed reports from the health office will show among other things that 8,715 yards of ditching have been done, at the instigation of the unit; 2045 yards of oiling against mosquitoes; 1043 visits by nurses of the unit; and a very large number of inoculations against typhoid fever.

Dr. Goodwin Yet
"Very Sick Man"

Reports from the home of Dr. L. F.
Goodwin today just before the hour of going to press is "that he is still a very sick man". His continued serious condition is a source of much anxiety by his legion of friends here, who are exceedingly anxious to receive some word of encouragement from his sick room. Dr. Goodwin is a lovable man, quiet, unpretentious, and moves with such ease of manner, and words of wisdom and counsel, that he is doubly missed from among the walks of his legion of friends who are deeply interested in his present condition.

Royer Suffering
From Injuries

James Royer, who with his family occupy rooms in the Simpson apartments on Second Avenue, is suffering from the fracture of his left collar bone, as well as other serious injuries caused by the automobile accident of Saturday night. Mr. Royer states that he is not yet sure, who is to be credited with running into him as it was dark when the accident occurred. He stated he was close to the Echols hotel, when without warning a machine came along and knocked him down. Mr. Royer is employed in a Moulton street mercantile establishment, but he is not yet able to go to his work.

Britain's Battle
Ships Reported
Ordered to East

(Associated Press.)

MALTA, Dec. 28.—As a result of unsatisfactory news from Lausanne, it is understood that the ships of the British Mediterranean fleet, which arrived here on December 23 for a three weeks visit, have received orders to return to the Near East.

LAUSANNE, Dec. 28.—The Near East conference was faced with a serious crisis today as the sharp and apparently irreconcilable conflict between the English and Turks, over the Mosul oil fields, reached a decisive stage.

Lord Curzon's statement that "the turning point of the conference has come" and that England would decline to continue the Mosul controversy, was in direct conflict with Ishma Pasha's note, asserting that the Turkish people had decided "to employ to the last limit of its forces, all means to obtain the return of Mosul to the motherland."

Between these two extremes there is a gulf which seems difficult, if not impossible to bridge.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 28.—
The National Cast Iron Pipe company, with plants at Tarrant City, announced today that its capital stock had been increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

It was also stated that the company would, at once, begin erection of additions to its property.

NEGRO BROUGHT BACK.

(Montgomery Bureau
Albany-Decatur Daily.)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 28.— (Special)—Ed White, negro, from the moment he was arrested in Toledo, Ohio, last week until he was on the train bound for Alabama insisted that he was not wanted in this state, but finger prints told a different story and when White realized that he was Alabama bound he admitted to the transfer agent that he escaped from Bagdad prison while serving ten years for manslaughter committed in Bibb county.

PRES. PATTERSON
Visits Home Folks

A. G. Patterson, president of the public service commission, is here today and expects to spend some days in the county.

He left this afternoon for a visit to his parents at Falkville and while out in the county expects to look after some of his farming interests.

Mr. Patterson would make no formal statement as to the present status of the controversy over the valuation of the Alabama Power company, but indicated that the whole matter would come eventually before the recently elected commissioners.

PLAN DRIVE AMONG BUSINESS MEN FOR MEMBERS FOR "Y"

A Y. M. C. A. membership campaign, supplementary to the successful similar campaign for "Y" membership made throughout the Louisiville and Nashville shops some ten days ago, will open Friday morning at 9 o'clock, among the business men of the two cities.

This move was due to have been made simultaneously with the shops campaign, but it was deferred, owing to the rush of business just before Christmas.

At the time the shops membership campaign was at its height, Messrs.
A. H. Hoff and W. W. Rahm, stated that they were sure the business sections would surely raise 200 memberships in addition to the large number subscribed at the shops. It was pointed out by W. W. Rahm, this morning who with Mr. Hoff, is taking an active part in plans for the "drive", that it had been the idea all along to make the Association, a meeting place and point of contact between the business and the shop men.

Mr. Rahm said the men of the shop had done their part, and that now it was up to the business men to do their part, for the success of a big active Y. M. C. A. this coming year.

The following committeemen have been appointed to canvass for memberships and have accepted that responsibility. West side of Second Avenue: Dave Cohen, E. W. Strother, Eugene Sivilly and Walter Chenaute.

Moulton and Jackson Streets: Marvin Rankin and Zeno Bailey; East side of Second Avenue: A. L. Malone, Joe Woods, Webb Speake and John Proctor.

Raid Stops Fight
of Game Chickens

(Montgomery Bureau,
Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 28.— State law enforcement agents yesterday afternoon broke up the annual fight between game chickens which was being held in a back lot near Oakwood cemetery. When W. R.
Scarborough, law enforcement agent, made his call and stood around a while one of the participants asked:
"Are you here on official business?" When Mr. Scarborough answered in the affirmative one of the officials announced that business was suspended indefinitely.

It was reported in Montgomery that chicken fanciers had gathered in Montgomery from many sections of the state. Mr. Scarborough said the grounds indicated that several fierce battles had been fought during the day, but when he arrived there was no indication of a chicken fight in progress. Several game roosters were to be seen but they were in crates and it was not possible for the officers to make any arrests as there was nothing to indicate which of the spectators had been engaged in the act, which is prohibited by Alabama laws.

MONEY RAISED TO PAY INTEREST DEBT

Congratulations are being extended to Mayor Britain and Messrs.
Cherry, Bowles and Hutson, for their success in meeting the big interest debt due from the city yesterday, on money borrowed in connection with the $400,000 street improvement program, undertaken soon after the war.

These men were commissioned by the city council Tuesday night, to devising ways and means by Wednesday night for the payment of between $10,000 and $11,000. They held a meeting Wednesday morning, and to use the expression of Mr. Hartung "We just naturally got busy, and got the money. Some large taxes were coming due and would have been delinquent by the first of January, so we encouraged those owing them to pay them at once."

GUARDS ARE PLACED
AROUND RESIDENCES
OF COMMISSIONERS;
HUNT FOR SUSPECTS

Believe Terrorists Had Planned Explosions For Early This Morning

NO VISIBLE MOVE YET
MADE BY THE PLOTTERS

Malcontents Declared To Have Planned Outrages at Cemetary Meeting

(Associated Press.)

COLUMBUS, Ga., 28.—The Muscogee county grand jury was convened here today in extraordinary session to investigate the alleged bomb plot unearthed here yesterday, which caused the police to place guards around the homes of five city commissioners, an apartment house and a large factory.

The police reported early today that there was no visible move made on the part of the alleged plotters last night.

The police continued their activity to obtain evidence and to round up suspects and it is said they were ready to present to the grand jurors full details of the so-called plot, which they claimed had been formulated to bring about wholesale destruction in this city.

Marshall Morton, a city commissioner, claimed that the alleged plotters had planned their first attack early this morning. He said that he based his statement on what had taken place at a meeting of the alleged plotters, held Tuesday night in a local cemetery.

In his statement he intimated that the authorities have the names of every man who attended the meeting, although it was supposed to have been veiled in deepest secrecy.

The police say there are twelve men involved in the alleged plot, which includes members of the Columbus police department, malcontents, criminals and one or two persons from the Alabama cities located across the river from here.

At a meeting of citizens, called yesterday afternoon, it was stated by the authorities that they had information to the effect that the plot was for the party to divide, each group going in automobiles, carrying a quantity of T. N. T. and at the appointed moment to use the explosive on the property marked for destruction, so that all the explosions would occur simultaneously.

The places to be destroyed, according to police, were: residence of J.
Homer Dimon, city commissioner and mayor; residence of Miss Anna Griffin, city commissioner; residence of Reuben Kyle, city commissioner, residence of Marshall Morton, city commissioner; residence of R. E. Dis-mukes, city commissioner; plant of National Showcase company, of which Mayor Dimon is president; Dimon court apartments, owned in part by Mayor Dimon.

MR. WILSON IS AT HIS 66TH MILE STONE; HIS FINE SPIRIT WILL MARCH ON FOREVER.

On this the 28th day of December, Woodrow Wilson reaches his 66th milestone on the road of life. He is almost a physical wreck. Ten years ago he was in the prime of life—and destined to become the most powerful man that has appeared in human history within the present generation. He began to develop his power and to exercise it very soon after he assumed the Presidency of this nation; for in August 1914 the whole world was suddenly thrown into battle array, by a man who was later to feel the mighty power of Woodrow Wilson's personality, and the power of his office, the greatest one on the earth then and now—that of President of the United States. Early in the great conflict it became Wilson's duty to restrain the dogs of war in his own country. He kept America out of the war, perhaps longer than any other man could have done. Whether he was wise in so doing—it is idle to discuss—the facts of history cannot be changed and therefore they need not be questioned now.

When it came time to unchain the American dogs of war, Wilson unchained them with a vengeance. It was he, who stood at the Navy yard near Philadelphia, when the German submarine menace was at its height, and when the grand fleet of Great Britain was doing little or nothing to curb those cowardly, ambush-shooting devices of hell, and told his Navy, and incidentally those of England and the rest of the world, that he was getting tired of no results against the Germans on the sea and under the sea, and that if it took a great sacrifice of the naval strength of the allies to curb the submarines, well and good but curb them!

The most powerful man in Europe—when those men of brute force were failing and fixing to seek ignoble flight in front of the Allied armies under the redoubtable Foch—namely Lloyd George said when the beginning of the end of the war was in sight for weal or for woe, that it was a race between President Woodrow Wilson, and the forces of barbarity, stupid brutishness and cruel cunning, as to whether civilization survived or perished. It was soon after the great little Welshman, thus struck his colors to America and to Wilson that Mr. Wilson issued from his typewriter that wonderful sentiment that showed he was not "too proud to fight" if the cause was just and worth while—which said in effect if the Central powers wanted force, they should have it, and that to the end of the limit. The war was won, not able to trust his political enemies—(whether he was wise in this or not, it is idle to speculate)—Mr. Wilson crossed to Versailles and tried to settle the world conflict himself—with what little help and hindrance men like Col. E. M. House and Secretary Lansing gave to him. He failed—to put the matter bluntly and two words. But what a magnificent failure! On the morning of Dec. 22, morning newspapers showed that all Wilson once advocated had been tardily accepted as gospel truth by a Republican administration—and the Republicans went even further than Wilson said. They proposed that America alone settle present row in Europe—the aftermath of the war. Wilson wanted all the nations to consult together in a league. But the Republicans have out Wilsoned Wilson.

According to a well known journalist "And now the succeeding administration proposes that America take over the thorniest of all the world problems and settle it single handed". The same writer had described just before, how the Republicans had refused the more reasonable and less objectionable plan of Wilson. And then he adds: "If Mr. Wilson didn't have apoplexy when he read the news (that Washington proposed to act as world empire), he ought to be fairly safe from that ailment." The fight Wilson made for pure righteousness—in all departments of American life—civic, industrial, political, etc.—and the odds he fought against have broken his body—possibly for all time—but nothing has broken his fine manly spirit—it will go marching on, after his frail body is laid to rest by loving hands.

THAT DAY.

It has been said recently by a great thinker of this country, that the public school is the hope of the world. That it is the only institution where provision is made to give the bottom an opportunity to come to the top without paying homage to some domineering leadership or influence. If this is true, and it sounds reasonable, the public school should be given a surer footing, and more provision made that the bottom should come to the top, without any impediments being thrown in the way.

Functioning without any hindrances; provision made that every one shall have the very best of opportunities, and that none shall have pre-eminent privileges over another. When the fulfillment of that day and idealistic dream comes true, the rural schools of the land will be made as good as the best, and every provision and help be brought together for their benefit.

The world was good to the unfortunates at this Christmastime, and the world is nothing more or less than the people who inhabit it. Therefore the great heart of sympathy and compassion goes out at each season, and great good is done, good which adds to the sum of human happiness and joy in the right manner, and in this respect we are getting a step nearer to the idea, "that I am my brother's keeper". If this idea prevailed in its entirety, the budget for battleship construction would cease, and the means, the millions each year be turned into channels of usefulness, the object of which would be to build up instead of tearing down. If this idea prevailed, there would be no need of arsenals where tons and tons of poisonous gases are kept, and where formulas are being thought out which will prove more destructive than those of the past. We have no doubt taken a backward step since the memorable peace conference, when it was announced that the junking of battleships would be carried out in a large manner. It was done on a small scale, but has it not turned out to be the old and dilapidated ones which are no further fit for combat in a modern age of far more powerful dreadnaughts? We are yet far from the idea advanced at the peace conference, when it was announced that the nations would go into the junk business on a large scale, but have they?

Andy Gump stands a much better chance of being counted back into Congress than friend Victor Berger has of retaining his seat, to which he was duly elected.

Johnson was attending a temperance lecture.

"If I lead a donkey up to a pail of water and a pail of beer, which will he choose to drink?" queried the speaker.

"The water," said Johnson. "Yes, and why?"

"Because he's an ass," was Johnson's reply.

GOTTA BE CAREFUL.

There was a man who loved the bees; He always was their friend. He used to sit upon their hives, They stung him in the end.

And we have noticed that the man whose religion won't let him fight can make more insulting remarks than any fighting man.

Make It At Home By This Easy Process—Takes Less Than 30 Minutes.

Nowadays, more and more women are doing as their mothers did and are making their own soap. If you have never tried it, you will be surprised to see how easy it is to make good soap. Just by using kitchen scraps and waste grease together with a can of Merry War Lye, the safe and sure soapmaker. REHEARSAL PARTY.

Miss Alice Hutton entertained the Miller-Stutz wedding party after the rehearsal at her home on Tuesday evening. Xmas season was suggested in the decorations and the dining table was centered with the large wedding cake banked around with holly. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when light refreshments were served.

STUTZ-MILLER WEDDING.

A wedding of fond interest here was sweetly solemnized at the Westminster Church on Wednesday at 1 p. m. when Miss Marjory Miller was married to Mr. Frederick Stutz, the Rev. J. D. Wallace officiating.

The church was a bower of evergreens and ferns with touches of white and lighted white candles were placed in the windows and bordered the choir railing, at each one of which were silver candlesticks with lighted candles. Mrs. Seneca Burt presided at the organ and after the prelude, Mr. B. B. Pickens sang "At Dawning," Miss Mary Penick sang, "I Love You Truly" followed by a solo by Mrs. A. A. Hardage, then Mrs. H. R. Sumner sang "The Greatest Wish of All." To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March the ushers, Dr. John Bragg, Messrs. Asbury Malone, Edwin Shackelford, and Ethridge Adams led the wedding party. Miss Minnie Catherine Stutz, of Chattanooga, sister of the groom entered attired in rose canon crape gown with black accessories and carrying an arm bouquet of white roses; down the other aisle came Mrs. James Allen Fuller, of Huntsville, a matron of honor and she was dressed in rose Spanish lace dress and wore a black lace hat and carried white roses. Miss Alice Hutton, maid of honor wore a creation of serrat blue silk lace with a large black hat with blue trimmings and her flowers were pink roses. Mrs. James Johnson, matron of honor, was gown in blue canon crape beaded in cut steel beads with a black picture hat with jet black trimmings and her bouquet was white roses. The pretty little ringbearer, Marjory Davis, carried the ring in the heart of a rose and she was dressed in pink accordin pleated dress and a large band and bow of pink tulle was placed around her head with long streamers in the back. The groom with his brother, the best man, Horace Stutz, met the bride, who entered with her father, Mr. B. B. Pickens, at the altar where the betrothal ceremony was performed. The pretty bride was unusually attractive in her afternoon gown of grey tone willow crepe with touches of blue and rose. She carried bride's roses.

After the ceremony the happy young couple left for St. Louis, Mo. Their many friends regret that they are making their home in another state as Miss Miller was one of our most popular and charming members of the social set. The groom was connected with the Morgan County Health Department for some time and while here made a large circle of friends.

DINNER PARTY.

A delightful dinner party was given for the Miller-Stutz bridal party at the Lyons Hotel on Tuesday evening, only immediate members of the wedding party being the guests of the joint hosts, Mr. Edwin Shackelford and Dr. Bragg.

Among the dancing contingent attending the dance in Huntsville this week were Misses Helen Russell, Jane Knight, and Amanda Pride, chaperoned by Mrs. John Knight and Messrs. Mack Adams, P. J. and Pinkie Brown, Eugene Russell, Bob and Albert Jervis.

A wedding of interest to many friends of the contracting parties was that of Miss Eula Lee Nelson and Mr. Richard Leon Keneipp on the evening of Dec. 27th at the Central Baptist Church. Rev. W. T. Wilkes read the impressive ring service at eight thirty o'clock. The vows were taken before a beautiful smilax and twenty lighted candles.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Josephine Sewell sang "I Love You Truly." Mr. B. B. Pickens sang "All The Joy Be Thine." Mrs. H. P. Sumners sang "I Love You." Mrs. Davis Gibson played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

The bride entered on the arm of her father and was charming in lovely navy canon crape, trimmed in grey squirrel, with hat and accessories to harmonize. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Nelson. Mr. Keneipp is a prominent young business man of Mt. Carmel, Ill.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Keneipp left for their home in Mt. Carmel.

The bridal party consisted of Misses Tyne Hamlin, Capitola Hamilton and Georgia Nunn, bridesmaids; Miss Claudia Pullias, maid of honor; Messrs. Joe Matthews, Irvin Mitchell and Paul McKnight ushers; Mr. Richard Nelson, best man.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. C. W. Bethany and children of Lake Worth, Fla.; Mrs. E. H. Speaks, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Reynold Smith, of Trenton, Ill.; Mrs. T. B. Ross and children, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hartselle News

A regular flood of rain broke over this place at an early hour Wednesday morning, flooding the streets and causing the electric light service to be considerably disarranged. It was about the hour that early risers were up, and considerable inconvenience was experienced especially by those who failed to have a supply of candles.

Practically all of the merchants here have begun the taking of their annual inventory of their stocks of merchandise. Practically all the business men report a much better year than the one preceding, and face the New Year with a great deal more of encouragement than a year ago. Among the business firms of the town there will be very little change. One new firm will be added to the mercantile interests, and the addition of another business occasioned by the dissolving of the partnership of Messrs. Stewart Bros. James F. Stewart, the elder member of this firm will conduct the business at the old stand, while Thomas Stewart, will open in the new and commodious brick building recently completed, west of the depot. These gentlemen have been in business here the entire time of their business life, and have done a lucrative business.

Several local fox hunters, accompanied by D. S. Echols, of Decatur, staged a big fox hunt on the mountains east of here Tuesday night. In all there were about 25 Walker fox dogs, and those who were in the party report some splendid races, with the red fox in the lead.

James E. Peck, for some time connected with the Bank of Hartselle in the capacity of cashier, and still in that capacity, has taken over the insurance business formerly conducted by Arthur Stephenson, president of the bank.

Mrs. Gus Moore, who has been ill for quite a while, is reported as improving.

Louis Houston has returned home after spending a few days with friends at Birmingham, his former home. Mr. Houston formerly was a rate clerk with one of the railroads entering Birmingham, though now a partner in the Peoples Drug Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Orr and son, Hal, motored to Lewisburg, Tenn., this week, to spend some time with his mother and sisters there.

Miss Katie Sue Hodges was hostess to a large number of the young society set of the town at her home Tuesday evening. Party games were indulged in and music and song added to the splendid time had by the young people. Refreshments were served, after which the young people returned to their homes. A number of social functions are planned for the remainder of the week, before the numerous out of town students return to their various schools in this and other states.

Mrs. Lillie Britnell has returned from Birmingham, where she spent Christmas with her son and daughter.

The flu which has been raging here and in territory adjacent to this place, is now practically abated.

Professor and Mrs. G. G. Glover, principal and teacher respectively in the city school, are spending their Christmas vacation with relatives out of town. They will return home Saturday and school will reopen next Monday.

Owing to the fact that it is impossible to get windows and doors for the new school house at Flint and Danville recently completed, it will be impossible to open school on the New Year in the new buildings as was anticipated, according to Prof. E. L. Hays, county superintendent. It is hoped to get the necessary fixtures during the month of January, when the two schools will enter their new buildings. They are both modern buildings with ample room for the accommodation of the school life for several years to come.

Miss Ruth Sharpley was hostess to a happy party of young people last Wednesday evening at her home on South Highlands, at a miscellaneous party, at which time a medley of games was played, nine in all and each one different. The hostess was assisted in receiving her guests by Miss Wilmer Kent, who in their characteristic way did much to make the evening one long to be remembered.

Those enjoying this splendid hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. John T. Larkin, of Macon, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. William Kimbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Howell, Misses Grace and Claire Sherrill, Lucile and Vivian Wade, Grace Sobotta, Merle Freeman, Lizzie Reed Penn, Ozelle Orr, of Birmingham, Sarah Patterson, Wilmer Kent, Eloise and Manesse Riddle, Messrs. Eric and Arthur Howell, Cecil and Arthur Hays, Pat Kimbrough, Dr. John Johnston, Leon Sharpley, Walter and Haymer Rountree, Max Sobotta, Charlie Quinn and Perry Orr.

Following the different games, at which time vocal and instrumental music was featured, the guests were ushered into the spacious dining room, where a delicious salad course was served.

A happier entertainment was never given here, and all were loud in their praise of the hostess and her gracious manner of entertaining.
